

English Studying Society

KANASAI GAIDAI UNIVERSITY E.S.S. in 2009

Greeting

One year has passed since I participated in the OB/OG meeting as the coordination department. I feel much honored to be back here as the president this time, and introduce the English Studying Society to all of you.

Now, the E.S.S. consists of over 80 members since we managed to rush approximately 50 first year students into the club this spring. We are assertively trying to make efforts at the password which we, E.S.S. members, are never afraid of making mistakes to raise the level of our English skills. At present, juniors motivate their seniors to study English more by the full of inquisitiveness. Whereas, the seniors encourage their juniors to study English more by the variety of experience. Thus, everyone interactively communicates with each other. I believe that the interaction is a vital dynamics for the E.S.S. to develop from now on.

It's one year since I was elected to the president last Nov. I faced something good and bad so far. Thorough all such things, there is something I have realized hitherto in my mind. That is, "Everyone in the E.S.S. is property." Shingen Takeda who was one of the strongest warriors said that the person is a castle, a stone wall and a moat. It simply means that you can't govern a country no matter how strong you make the castle when losing the support of the people. If something wants to develop in now and old times, "the person" is the key and lead. Namely, whether the E.S.S. develop or not depends on every member. It seems that most members have realized it. That's why we need the interaction and spontaneity to accelerate the development. I'm very happy to be one of cogs to promote the development. Also, I've decided to keep making efforts for my next generation and the E.S.S.

Finally, on behalf of the all the member of the E.S.S., I would like to express my heart-felt thanks to all of you, every professor who consistently supports us and the like. On top of that, I would like you to enjoy yourself with the members tonight.

Best regards, The president of the E.S.S.

Yuki Takahashi

Dear E.S.S.

On this precious occasion, I would like to express my sincere appreciation of each ESS member's consistent and tenacious efforts to improve their English communication skills by doing a lot of activities using English on a daily basis, which has made ESS one of the clubs on Kansai Gaidai.

It would not be too exaggerating for me to say that Kansai Gaidai has been walking with ESS almost "hand in hand" for about for long decades. With its various activities and training, ESS has been sending out sparkling streams of superior graduates to the world to the world every year.

A lot of activities, even and practices carefully planned and carried out by E.S.S. members themselves, such as the debate contests, speech contests, on-sight tour-guide volunteering practices, drama performances and annual training camps in spring and summer - to name but a few – enhance not only each member's English proficiency but also their overall interpersonal communication skills by letting the members help and encourage each other exceed all expectations. The members who have proudly gone through those demanding but fulfilling experiences, without a doubt, would develop supreme self – confidence and positively influence other non-ESS students both in classroom and on campus well, providing them with a good example to follow.

Last but not least, I am absolutely sure that our ESS will grow and prosper even more year after year as one of the best clubs at Kansai Gaidai University.

Yoshitaka Tanimoto

A Few Words From Tutor

I am very happy to show my gratitude that I have been working as the ESS tutor, and I would like to express my sincere appreciation of each member's constant efforts to improve their communication skills by studying English very hard on a daily basis. Since I became the tutor of ESS about three years ago, not a day has passed until today without being amazed at the members' remarkable improvement of their English and their non-stop development of their characters.

What shows me their improvement as ESS members and as university students comes through the annual camps. This year in August, I joined the annual summer camp. Again this year, their remarkable improvement in English showed how hard they had practiced until the camp. Talk about a “far cry” from when they were new members! Through all the activities we had in the camp, they not only showed their remarkable progress in English, they also impressed me with their high skills in interpersonal communication, which must have been made possible by everyday interaction with a lot of other members of ESS. Seeing them fully tapping their own potential abilities in various aspects, I refreshed my belief that ESS is the best place around to improve English, acquire high interpersonal skills, and above all, make life-long friends with a lot of bright and intelligent people.

Every year, various activities and events offered by ESS, improve not only each member's English proficiency but also their interpersonal communication skills in an cooperative atmosphere where all members help and encourage each other to exceed all ordinary expectations. Those who proudly go through those fulfilling experiences, without a doubt, would positively influence non-E.S.S. students both in and out the classrooms, offering good examples to follow.

Now, our ESS has grown to be the biggest academic official club in our campus. With its aspired members' energy and forward-looking attitude and tenacity, this time-honored club will grow and prosper every year, making its remarkable history and bright future together with this University.

Planning Department

We are the 43rd leaders of the planning department. 11 months have passed since we became the leader of the planning department. We have learned many things which will help us as we implement improvement plans for the club in the future.

As the lead planner for our club, We made three plans: Spring training camp, summer training camp, and the OB/OG meeting. Every events had its ups and downs. Although we had been under pressure to meet the expectations, we were committed to achieving our goals. We will describe those in brief.

Spring Training Camp

This year we went to Hyogo prefecture with 50 members and shared wonderful memories. Our main goals were to brush up on our English skills, to create excellent relationships and to assess if we had become respectable senior members. We were new at managing the events. It was so hard to keep the plans on course, but many friends gave us support. We were really moved. We sure we could learn a lot of valuable things through this camp. Therefore, this camp was amazingly beneficial for us.

The OB/OG Meeting

It goes without saying that this meeting is one of the most important events. That is because our mentors will know today`s ESS. In the generation when things come and go so easily, this is the event where we show today`s ESS to make a unflagging bid for keeping the tradition going , but we never stick to the status quo. We cave more development. Of course, we hope this meeting will become a meaningful time for you to become acquainted with various generations of the ESS.

These have been some of my areas of responsibility for about one year. We know two respectable planners, 41st and 42nd. We really want to become like them. This is the reason why we are doing our best. And we strongly hope our efforts and enthusiasm will rub off on next generation. All club mates have cheerful and supportive dispositions. We love this club, English Studying Society!

Sincerely yours Shota Moriyama Kenji Tanabe

Financial Affair

Hello, ladies and gentlemen. My name is Yukako Sakane. I took charge of financial affairs in this year with Ester. As for the main jobs, they are;

- 1) Management of the club's budget and subsidy
- 2) Collection of money and statement of account in each event
- 3) Management of booths in the school festival.

As you know, this task is difficult. However we make efforts to do it with conference members. I found that cooperation is one of vital parts to manage. I would like to serve to reinforce as much as possible.

Have a good time with club members in this ceremony. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
Yukako Sakane
Misa Miyamae

Coordination Department

I am glad to introduce my job as a coordination department of the E.S.S. club. I am not only a conference member, but also a vice-president of the club.

As a vice-president, I have to support our president, Yuki Takahashi. I am trying to listen to his opinion, consider it, and give my opinion. I often talk with him about the way which our club should go on. It is my pleasure.

Managing the Joint Discussion for Freshmen

I managed the Joint Discussion for Freshmen in last May. I about 400 students participated in this event from some universities. Of course, I had felt nervous. However, I could hear good and impressive comments. I could know that creating one thing was very hard, but what I can get was essential for me. That is cooperation and trust. I am really appreciate all members of E.S.S.

Looking for judges for events

When E.S.S. holds contests, I look for some judges for each contest. I think this aspect is the most helpful job of a coordination department. Thanks to this job, I always be able to communicate with native and Japanese professors. Whenever I visit their offices, I can listen to precious stories from them. Though it is very hard work to look for judges, I am sure that this job is growing me up.

Holding the spring and summer course

During spring and summer vacation, I hold the spring and summer course. In these course, whoever in E.S.S. club can hold some course. For instance, there are course for studying for TOEFL, for preparing the Guide Contest, and for practicing chair person of a discussion. This is a big chance for all the member of the E.S.S. club.

These are my jobs. I would like to keep on making a contribution for developing the E.S.S. club. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Takahiro Izumi Takuya Nakatsukasa

General Affair Manager

My name is Kazuya Kawa. I'm General Affairs Manager in E.S.S. I'd like to introduce my job.

My first job is to apply for the rooms and equipment for our activities. To use room for activities or some events, I have to hand in the appreciation form to school. And, if information letter come from other university, I usually send information mail to ESS members to inform it. Secondly, in ESS training camp in Summer and Spring, I managed the Bath time activity, to use the bath time effectively. Thirdly, in Graduate ceremony day, I manage the celebrate ceremony to congratulate our seniors.

Lastly, I made this pamphlet. This is the first and last time to manage to make this one. So, I felt the difficulty, but thanks to other members support, I could finish this without any problems.

Sincerely yours
Kazuya Kawa

Speaking Promoter

We have jobs to help ESS members speaking English and improving their English skills. We have three events through an annual. We believe it is important to have some confidence or motivation to speak English.

① Recitation Contest

This is a speech contest of the ESS, which we have to memorize speeches spoken by famous speaker such as Martin Luther King. It is held on the beginning of May for seniors and June for freshmen. It is for our connection of each member and improve English Skill during practicing them. In this year, seniors could show our great speeches to freshmen. Moreover, many freshmen joined our club and took part in this contest. They also had fantastic speeches. We believe this contest was beneficial for us to think something deeply when we could know their opinions through famous speeches.

② Tanimoto Presidential Cup

This is a traditional speech contest of the ESS. In this contest, our ESS members and other club members and other university students conduct speeches. Therefore, our ESS members and audience can see high quality speeches. In the contest, our ESS members and other students can communicate with each other. So, we can know ESS activities of other universities and motivate to study English.

③ Tsume Koza

This is a opportunity that everyone can give some lectures to other E.S.S. members. In that lecture, we can also improve our English skills.

Through these three main works, the ESS members can have some confidence or motivation and improve their English skills.

Sincerely yours,
Ayaka Makishita Ryohei Murata

The Chair person

Hello everyone, I'm Midori Masaki. I'm happy to write comment as a chair person.

The chair person has to bring the meeting together. I believe that this is my main duty. On Friday, we have a meeting and discuss every matter of our club. So, the chair person has to make the meeting progress smoothly. But, sometimes I face some difficult situation which can't do work well, however, this is good experience for me.

I think it is the work worth doing. My term will finish on this year. Now, I just hope that someone will succeed to my post and try to make this club better.

Sincerely yours,
Midori Masaki

Secretary

Hello. I am the former secretary in the E.S.S. club. It was the first time for me to do such work. I thought I did my best and I felt I grew up through being a conference member. I took over as secretary from Takuya Kishi, because the term of the position is six months.

Sincerely yours,
Ayumi Yamada

Hello. My name is Takuya Kishi, a secretary of English Studying Society at Kansai Gaidai University. I am first-year-student. I took over as secretary from Ayumi Yamada in June. I am glad to tell you about my work. My main work is recording proceedings. I write down in detail about what other conference members say during meetings.

At conferences

First, I call on all conference members. After that, I write down in detail the day's topic. After the conference, I file the topic in a binder which everyone can read.

At other events

I check latecomers and absent members. I record their names and report them to the manager and president.

These duties make up my job.

Finally, through the secretary, I would like to improve as a person. I want to do my best. Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely yours
Takuya Kishi

The head of the Section Leader

I am honored to take office as the head of the Section Leader. My job is not only to bring the section, but also unify all Section Leaders.

I have two main jobs as the head of Section Leader. It is to manage the Section Initiation and convene the conference of Section Leader.

In managing the Section Initiation in this year, I felt the difference of being a leader earnestly. This is because this event is the first place to meet all of ESS member officially. I placed great importance on the freshman, how did they think about this club at the first time. As a result, many ESS member said 'I enjoyed this event!' When hearing this comment, I was happy because of achieving my aim. This was the starting point of member including me.

Another job is to convene the conference of Section Leader. I call all Section Leaders and President ,and we talk about problems in each section or whole ESS. The difference point in this year is the number of time to convene this meeting. In last year, this time was once a month regularly, on the other hand, we hold this meeting irregularly. When one of the Section Leader want to convene the meeting, I call it and talk about this problem to solve it as soon as possible.

At this post, I learned how difficult leading many people and solving issues were.

Sincerely yours
Kazuaki Morimoto

The Leader of Discussion Section

I am honored to take post as the Leader of Discussion Section. Now, Discussion Section is developing steadily. I would like to explain this situation.

There are 15 member in this section, and we welcomed 10 freshmen, in this year. In the section activity, we mainly do PDD(Policy Determining Discussion). To be concrete, we do the activity twice a week, and discuss social problem in the PDD style. However, our skill of it is poorer than other universities. We realized such a thing when we participated KSSA camp in spring vacation. In this camp, we discuss medical issues with many students from other universities, it is not only universities in Kansai area but also other far away area in Japan. During this camp, we learned many skill of PDD, and could form relationship with other universities. Recently, we have finished teaching freshmen about PDD. Freshmen understand how to do it in their mind, however they seem to confuse this discussion. We have to do some advices for them more and more.

Sophomore and junior often only teach to freshmen, at this time, I must give them an opportunity to discuss using English. It is also my job as the leader.

Sincerely yours,

He insisted that we should have more opportunities for students to see what the E.S.S. club members are doing. Thanks to this new attempt, many freshmen became interested in the drama section.

“Mamma-Mia” for the Gaidai Festival.

During August, Yuka Takedomi showed the movie “Mamma-Mia” and During Kansai Gaidai Festival, modified the script, and directed the students. Some freshmen (including other section members) performed the modified mamma-mia as casts. It was the first time for me to be a director of a show. She was able to experience the difficulties and rewards of seeing people move as she wanted. And she is sure that drama was very enjoyable.

These are my jobs. I’d like to continue to improve my English skills and help other students improve their English skills of performance.

The Leader of the Speech Section

Hello, my name is Kentaro Kotoya. I am the leader of the speech section of the E.S.S. this year. This is a great opportunity for me to introduce this section. This year a lot of freshmen also came into this speech section. My work is to support section members to enjoy our activities.

In our section, we study the basis of making speeches and talk about the structure of speech or exchange our opinions. Through thinking about speech, we can learn how to make a speech and how we can tell our opinions efficiently and effectively to others.

We have two big contests. E.S.S. held a contest named the Tanimoto Presidential Cup in September. This year every member in the speech section took part in this contest. Another one is the five international universities contest. This contest is intended for freshmen. In this year the members of the speech section who wants to join this contest would have to practice a speech. In addition to those contests, we have many more speech contests.

I am going to make an effort to improve the activity in the E.S.S. speech section, and make solidarity in this year speech section ever stronger.

Sincerely yours,
Kentaro Kotoya

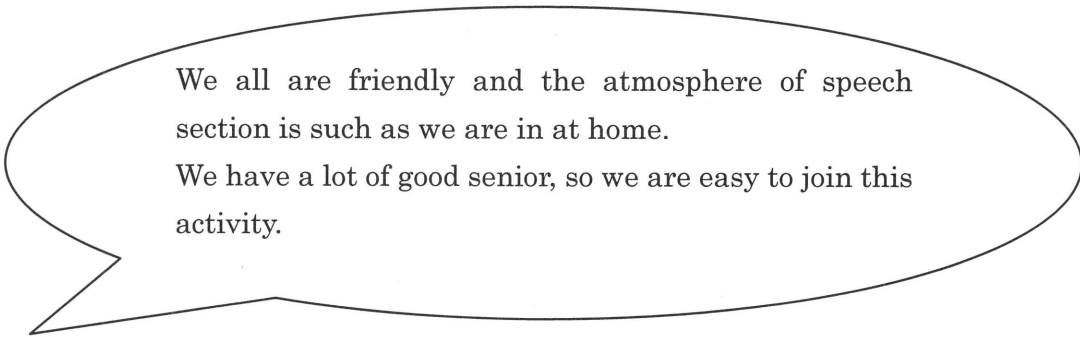

Introduction of SPEECH SECTION

· This year, we welcomed 4 freshmen who have high motivation, and some senior students support them well. Therefore, this section have been improved well, and expanded activity`s frame.

· Our objectives are here.

- 1, To win a good prize in speech contest, such as the Tanimoto Presidential Cup.
- 2, To have a substantial days in this sections activity.
- 3, Full of smile in speech section; To have a good friendship.

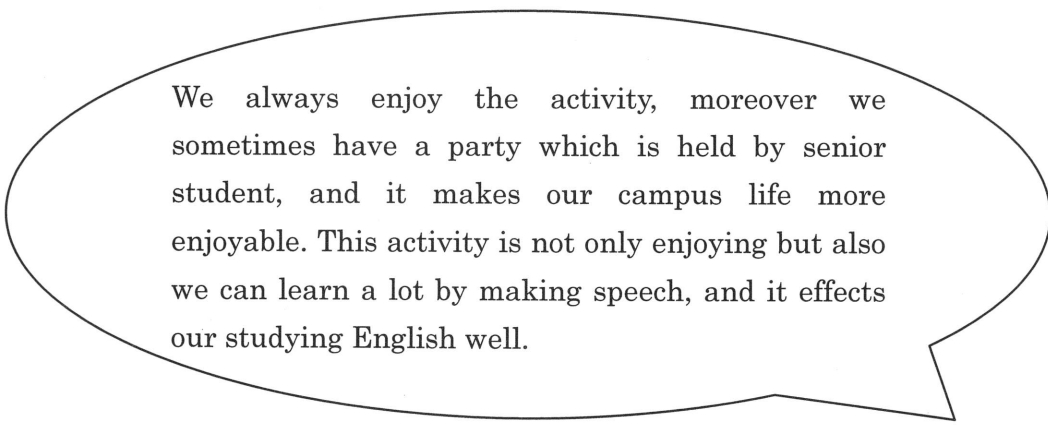

SPEECH SECTION'S ATMOSPHER

We all are friendly and the atmosphere of speech section is such as we are in at home.

We have a lot of good senior, so we are easy to join this activity.

By sophomores.

We always enjoy the activity, moreover we sometimes have a party which is held by senior student, and it makes our campus life more enjoyable. This activity is not only enjoying but also we can learn a lot by making speech, and it effects our studying English well.

By freshmen.

The Leader of the Freshmen

I'm very glad to introduce my job as the planner of the ESS club. I'm not only the conference member, but also a first-class leader, in other words the leader of the freshman, of this club. My main job is to help all freshmen's every work in this club.

I and other all freshmen have same goal that is to speak English fluently. So, to make a lot of efforts, I think that we should help each other. Then, we can not only improve our English skills, but also strengthen our bonds. Therefore, at first, we have to make good relationship beyond each section. Because 43 freshmen joined in this club, I want to do my best as much as I can.

First, to make good relationship, I want to hold a social gathering in September. Because we start the second semester and have a lot of events in this club from this month, to work them together, I think it's very important for us to do.

Second, I attend the club meeting that holds every Friday as a delegate of freshmen. And I inform them of what was discussed about in the meeting. Finally, I'll execute these jobs to contribute to this club as much as possible.

These are my jobs. Many troubles may await us, so this job would be very hard for me, but I want to be a person who put many members' trust. And I'm very thankful to all freshmen for giving me a good chance to be the leader of freshmen. So, I want to live up to their expectations.

Sincerely yours,
Kenji Nagata

April~July Lunch Time Activity

Actually, our university has had a lunch time since this semester. We held this activity in our club room on Thursday. The purpose of this activity is to communicate each other with speaking English. We managed discussion, impromptu speech, definition game and so on. I'd like to continue this activity in next semester, too.

These activities not only improve our English skills, but also cultivate our friendship. It is great time to spend my university life in E.S.S. Thank you so much.

Sincerely yours,
Asuka Uemura
